THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No. 20724 of 2005

ORDER:-

This writ petition is filed for the following substantive relief:

> "… … Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issue writ of Mandamus or any other appropriate writ declaring the action of the respondents herein as illegal, arbitrary and violation of natural justice as the respondent No.2 herein not allowing the petitioner to attend the III Year B.Sc., B.M.C. classes for the Academic year 2005-06, along with practicals and final examinations is illegal, arbitrary and violation of natural justice and consequently direct the respondent No.2 herein to allow the petitioner to attend the III year B.Sc., BMC classes, practicals, and final year examination for the academic year 2005-06 in the interest of justice, and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case."

At the hearing, none appeared for the petitioner.

However, looking at the above reproduced prayer, it is clear that the relief sought for in the writ petition is confined to the petitioner being permitted to attend the III year B.Sc., B.M.C. classes, practicals and final year examination for the academic year 2005-2006.

Since the academic year 2005-2006 has come to an end long back, the writ petition has become infructuous.

The writ petition is therefore dismissed as infructuous. No costs.

As a sequel to the dismissal of the writ petition as infructuous, WPMP.No.26448 of 2005 filed by the petitioner for interim relief is also dismissed.
